Pursuant to 43 CFR 8364.1, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) is giving notice that BLM lands in Garfield and Eagle Counties within the area of the Grizzly Creek Fire as described below are temporarily closed to all unauthorized entry. Please also see attached map.

This emergency closure is necessary to ensure public and fire fighter safety during firefighting activities and initial suppression rehabilitation efforts. The order is effective immediately and will remain in effect until the Grizzly Creek Fire is declared controlled or until this order is rescinded.

Closure Area Description: This closure affects BLM lands around Glenwood Springs and Dotsero, Colorado, as well as some BLM lands immediately south of Glenwood Canyon. Closed BLM lands adjacent to Glenwood Springs include the Lookout Mountain and Transfer Trail Road areas (including the Transfer Trail Road). For BLM lands near Dotsero, this closure includes all lands bounded by the Colorado River Road, Coffeepot Road and I-70. Due to no public take out spots, the Dotsero Boat Ramp is closed to launching, but open to take out.

Prohibited Acts:

1. You must not enter or use BLM lands described in this order.
2. You must not use the roads or trails in the area described in this order.

Exemptions: The following persons are exempt from this order: Federal, state, and local officers and employees in the performance of their official duties; members of organized rescue or fire-fighting forces in the performance of their official duties; and persons with written authorization from the BLM.

Penalties: Any person who violates the above rules and/or restriction may be tried before a United States Magistrate and fined no more than $1,000, imprisoned for no more than 12 months, or both. Such violations may also be subject to the enhanced fines provided for by 18 U.S.C. 3571
